

I do NOT believe that anything that might allow further consolidation of media outlets is in the country's best interest.